Only one faculty member per school course for half price. If you wish to take a course in which one of your faculty members is already registered you or they must pay for the course. This prevents a school from taking over an individual class. This offer EXPIRES April 1, 2025!

If either of your paying faculty members cancels and gets refunded for one or both of their courses, all half price attendees will have their registrations cancelled. Best not to get refunded and instead transfer the registration to another faculty member.
